Department of English

Title	Activity on Listening Skills
Date	20/01/2026
Organized by	Department of English
Aim	To enhance students' communication, Listening and comprehension abilities.
Outcome	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Students understood the difference between hearing and active listening. 2. Students improved their ability to concentrate and listening attentively for longer periods. 3. Students developed better note-taking skills while listening to the content. 4. The activity encouraged active participation and improved classroom interaction.

Activity Description

The Listening Skills activity was conducted for SYBCA students to enhance their active listening and comprehension abilities. During the session, students watched a speech by William James on the projector, followed by a short film titled Good Morning. Students were instructed to listen carefully and observe key ideas, themes, and messages. After the screening, they were asked to answer questions and share their understanding of the content and they were asked take notes also. The activity helped 29 students improve their concentration, interpretation skills, Note-taking skill and overall listening competence.
