Description

Dept. of Botany organized Best Out of Waste activity for students. This concept aligns with the "Reduce, Reuse, Recycle" principles and fosters creativity, problem-solving skills, and an understanding of waste management. The primary goal is to divert waste from landfills by giving it a new purpose. It challenges individuals to think outside the box and find innovative ways to use discarded items. It provides practical and decorative solutions for home use, from planters and organizers to unique art pieces.
